REVISED 7/2024

Administrative Discretion

Since trends and fads are difficult to predict the administration reserves the right to make the final call on all dress code decisions. Families are expected to comply with ALL aspects of the dress code for continued enrollment. The dress code is a part of the enrollment agreement! Compliance with the dress code is at the discretion of the Principal and/or the Vice-Principals

CONSEQUENCES FOR DRESS CODE VIOLATIONS

Any K-8 scholar who is out of dress code will (1) be held from class until the correct uniform is obtained AND (2) issued an after-school detention for the violation to the dress code. This expectation is strictly enforced daily and all uniforms are checked as each scholar enters the building. Failure to comply with the dress code is grounds for immediate removal from the school roster.

*All families enrolled at St. Aloysius Catholic School MUST comply with the full-dress code for continued enrollment (each and every school day).

The dress code is designed to be simple and affordable for all school families.

Excuses such as “I told my child to wear that” or the-like WILL NOT BE TOLERATED OR ACCEPTED. The dress code is published in July for all families to have plenty of time to review/comply with the dress code. This includes the school earring policy for boys. Non-compliance with our school rules, including the dress code, will result in immediate dismissal from the school roster.
